

Fang the Fire Lizard

By Morgan

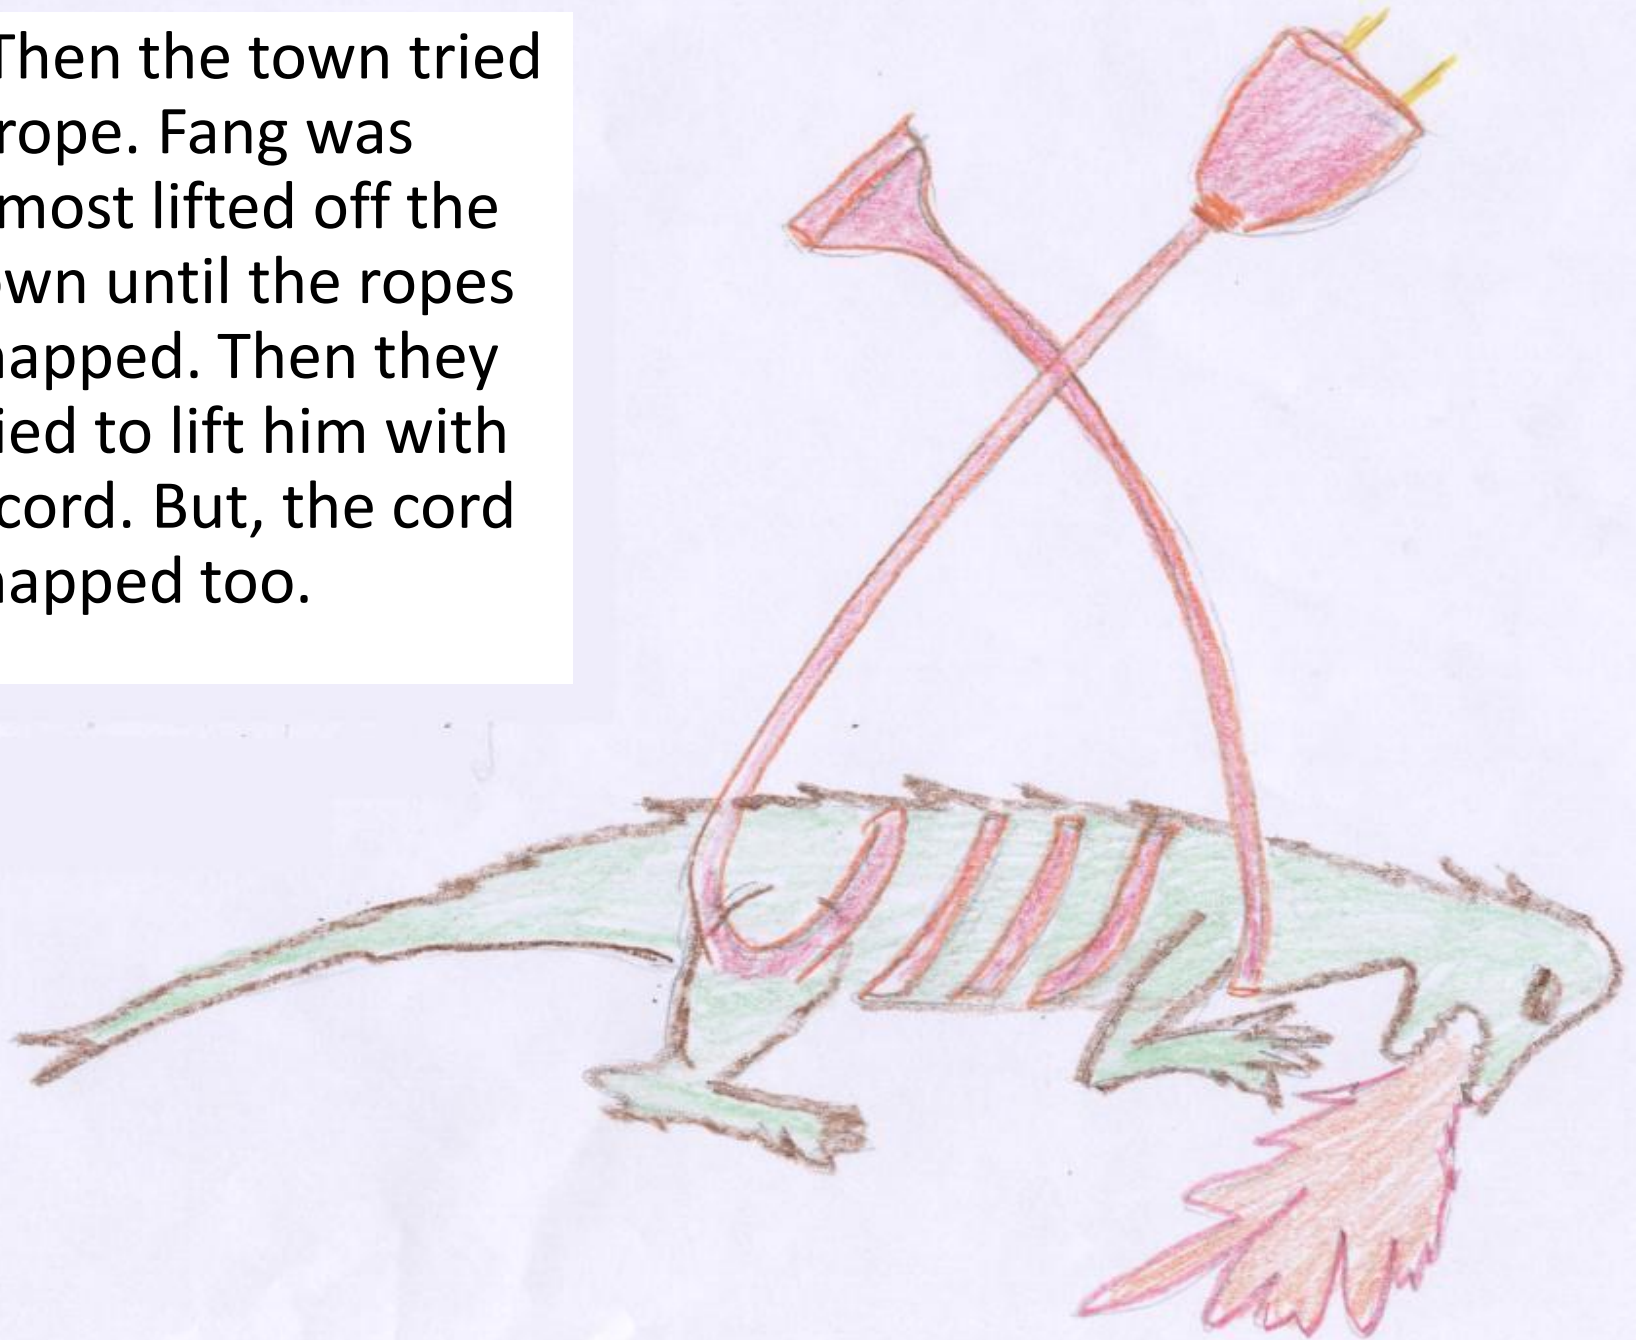

Once upon a time
Fang the Fire Lizard
tripped on a building
and smashed the whole town. Then a helicopter tried to lift him off of the town.

First they lifted him up with a lot of shoe laces. But then the shoe laces broke and snapped. There was 32 of them.

Then the town tried a rope. Fang was almost lifted off the town until the ropes snapped. Then they tried to lift him with a cord. But, the cord snapped too.

Then they got 2 helicopters. He pulled one down
and then second helicopter. So then they got 3
helicopters. Then they lifted him
up off the town.

Then he lived happily ever after. He stayed out of the town so he would not trip over more buildings.
