

The Great Worm!

By Lexys

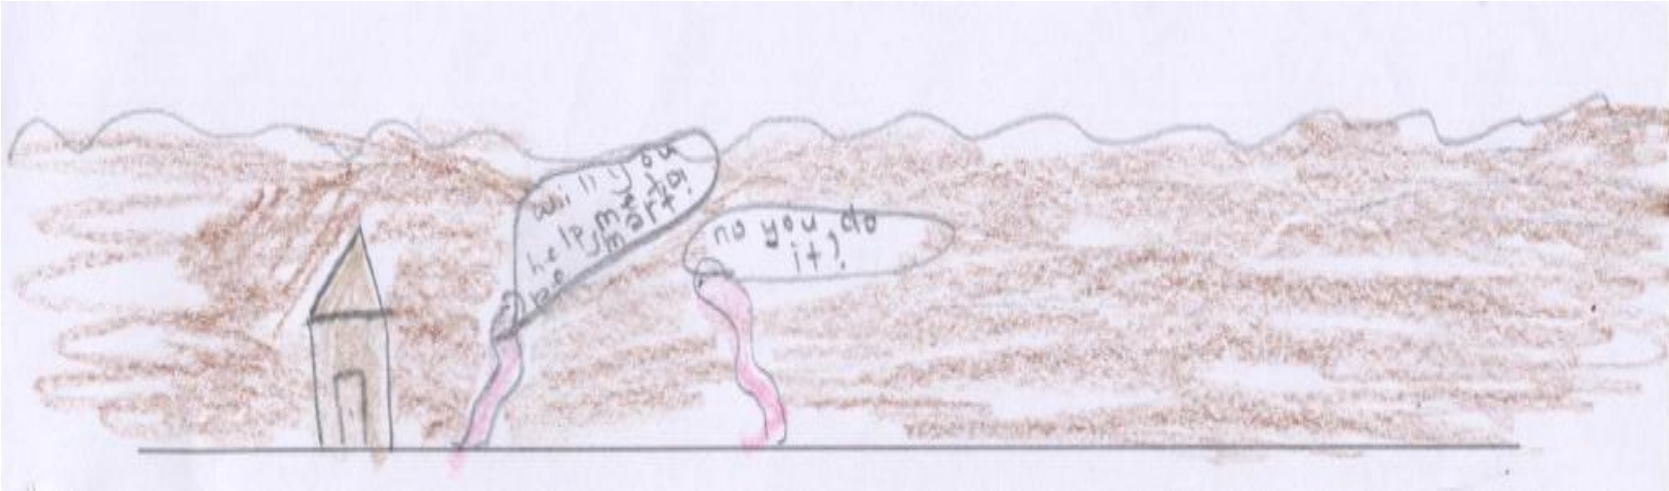

Once upon a time there was a worm who was not smart at all !!!!!!!

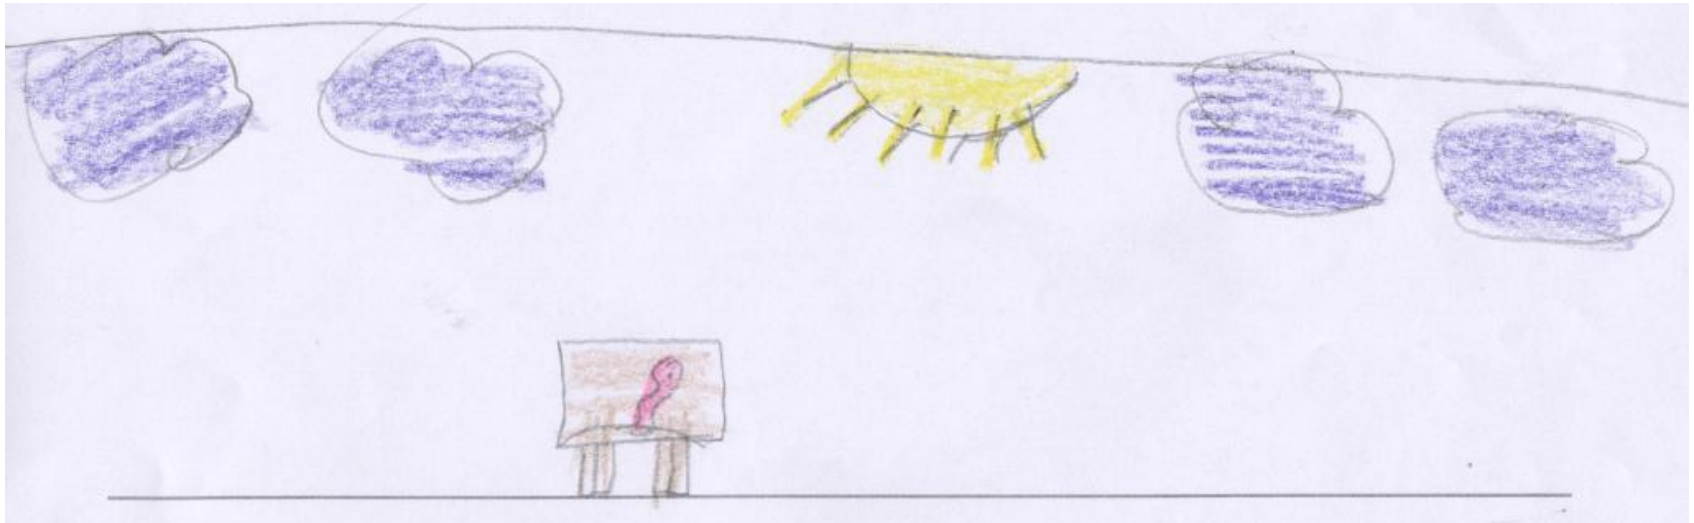

The worm asked his friend to help him get smarter.
But, the worm's friend said no.

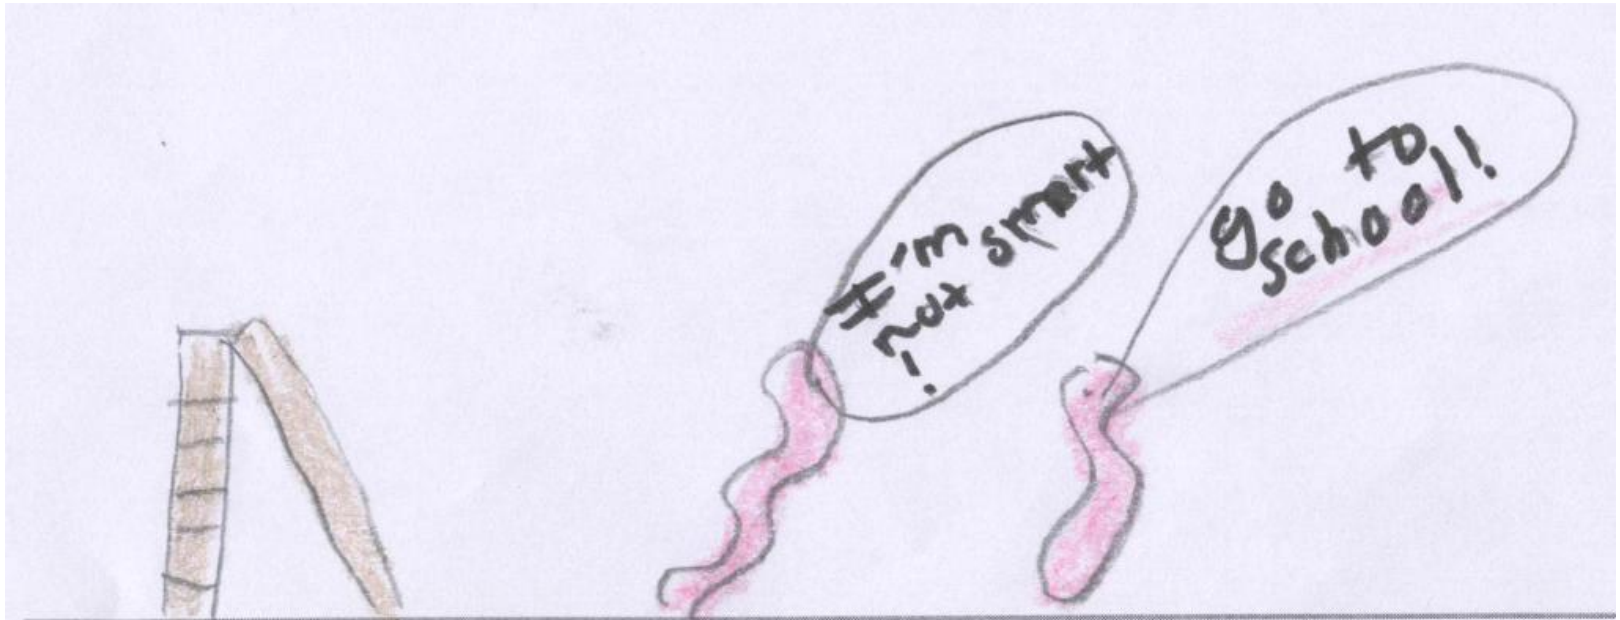

So he went to his other friends house. His other friend couldn't help him. So .....

Then he went to the park again. He was crying.

A worm came up to him and said, "what's a matter?" He said, "I'm not smart." The other worm said, "go to school."

He did and guess what happened. He became the smartest worm ever.
