

Diary of

The Talking Tuna

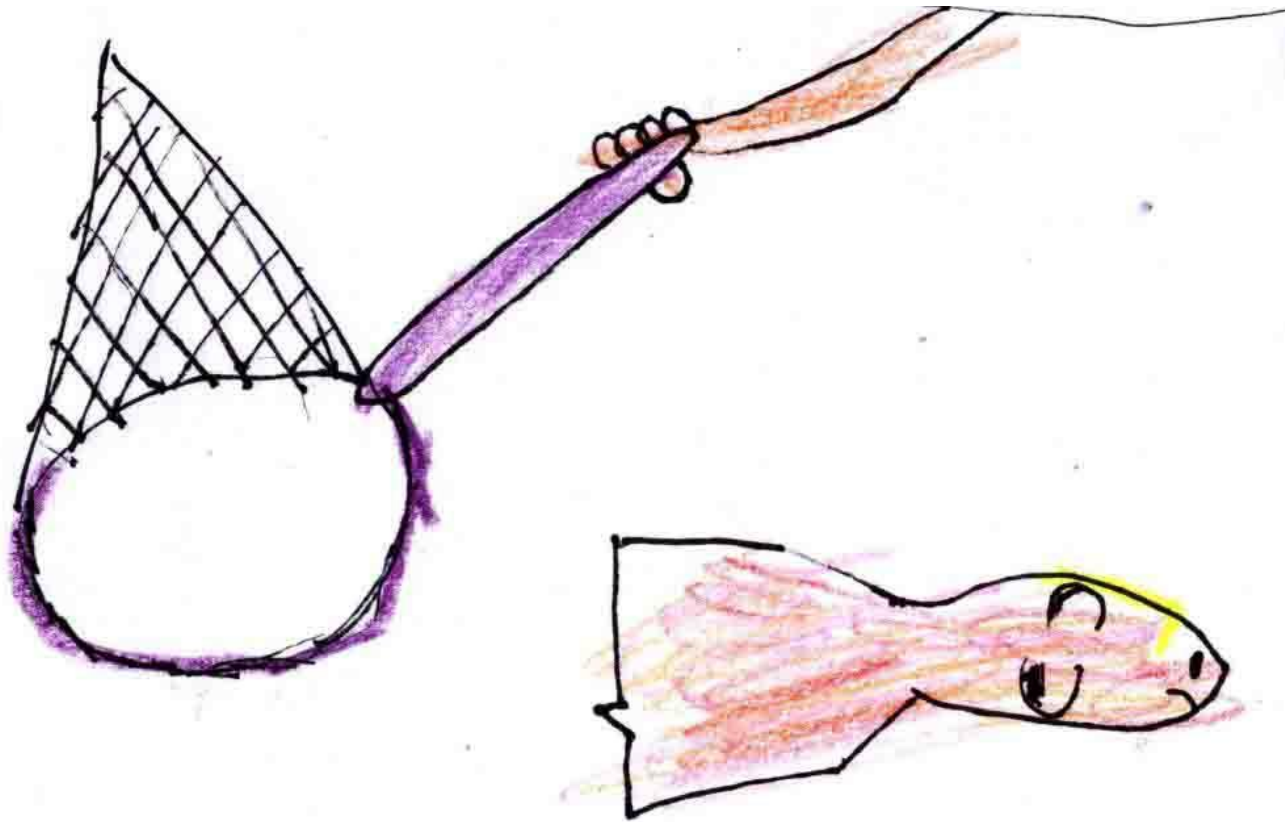

by Kayla

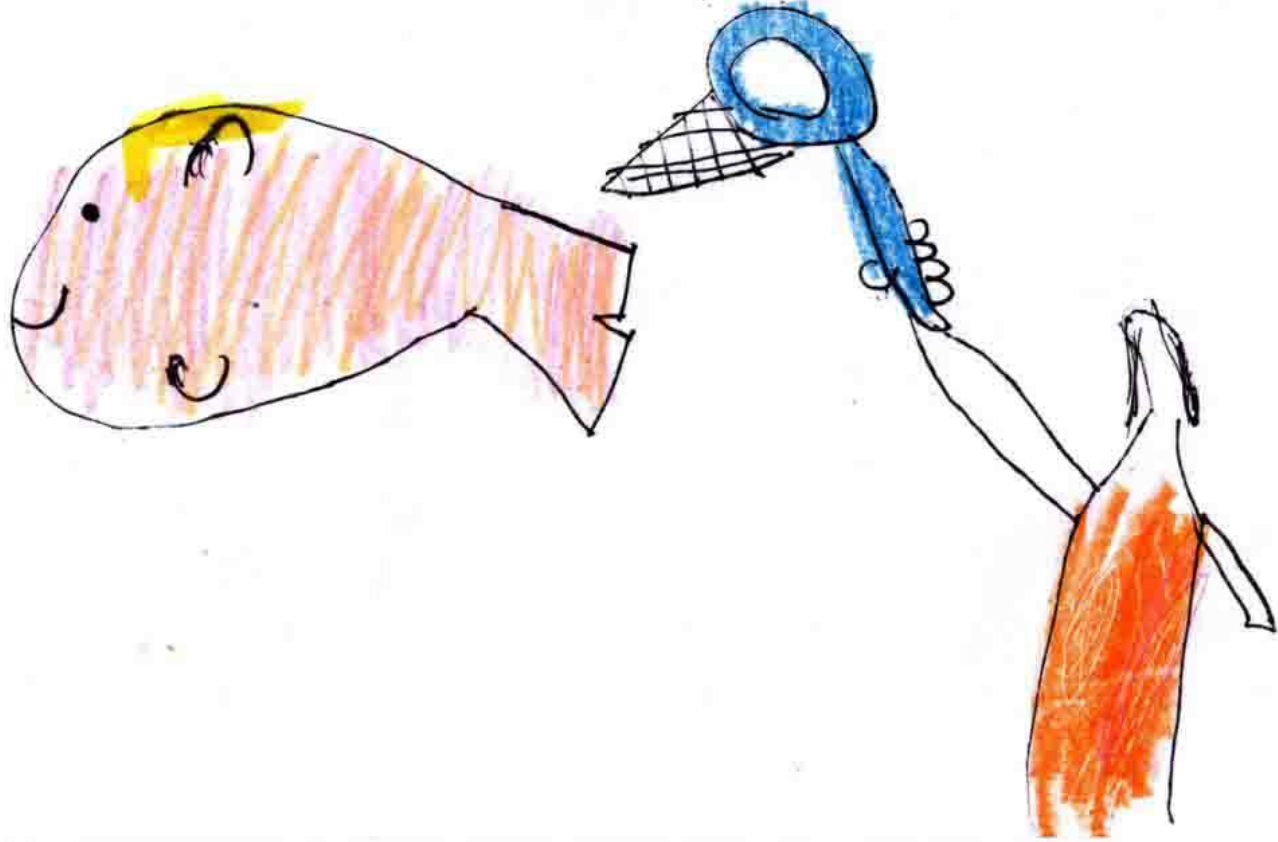

Hello! I'm Lola. I'm a tuna. I am playing with beads that I found. They are red, blue, and pink.

I am a careful tuna. Not once have I got stuck in the tuna nets. But, I did meet a human and almost got stuck in a net.

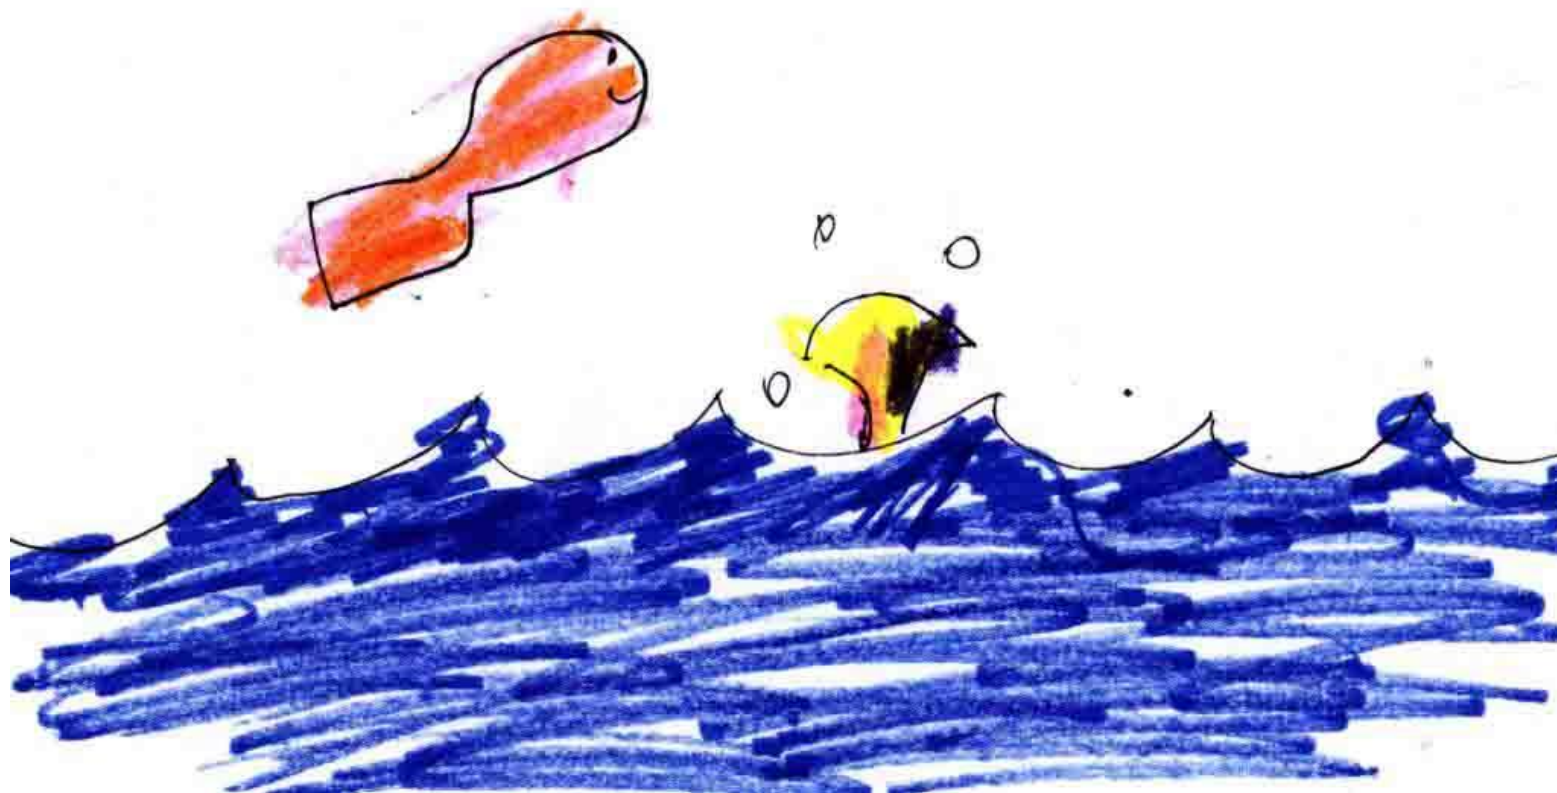

Oops! I got stuck in a net. I yelled at the human. He freaked out hearing a talking fish. He threw me in the water. I thought he would fry me up for dinner.

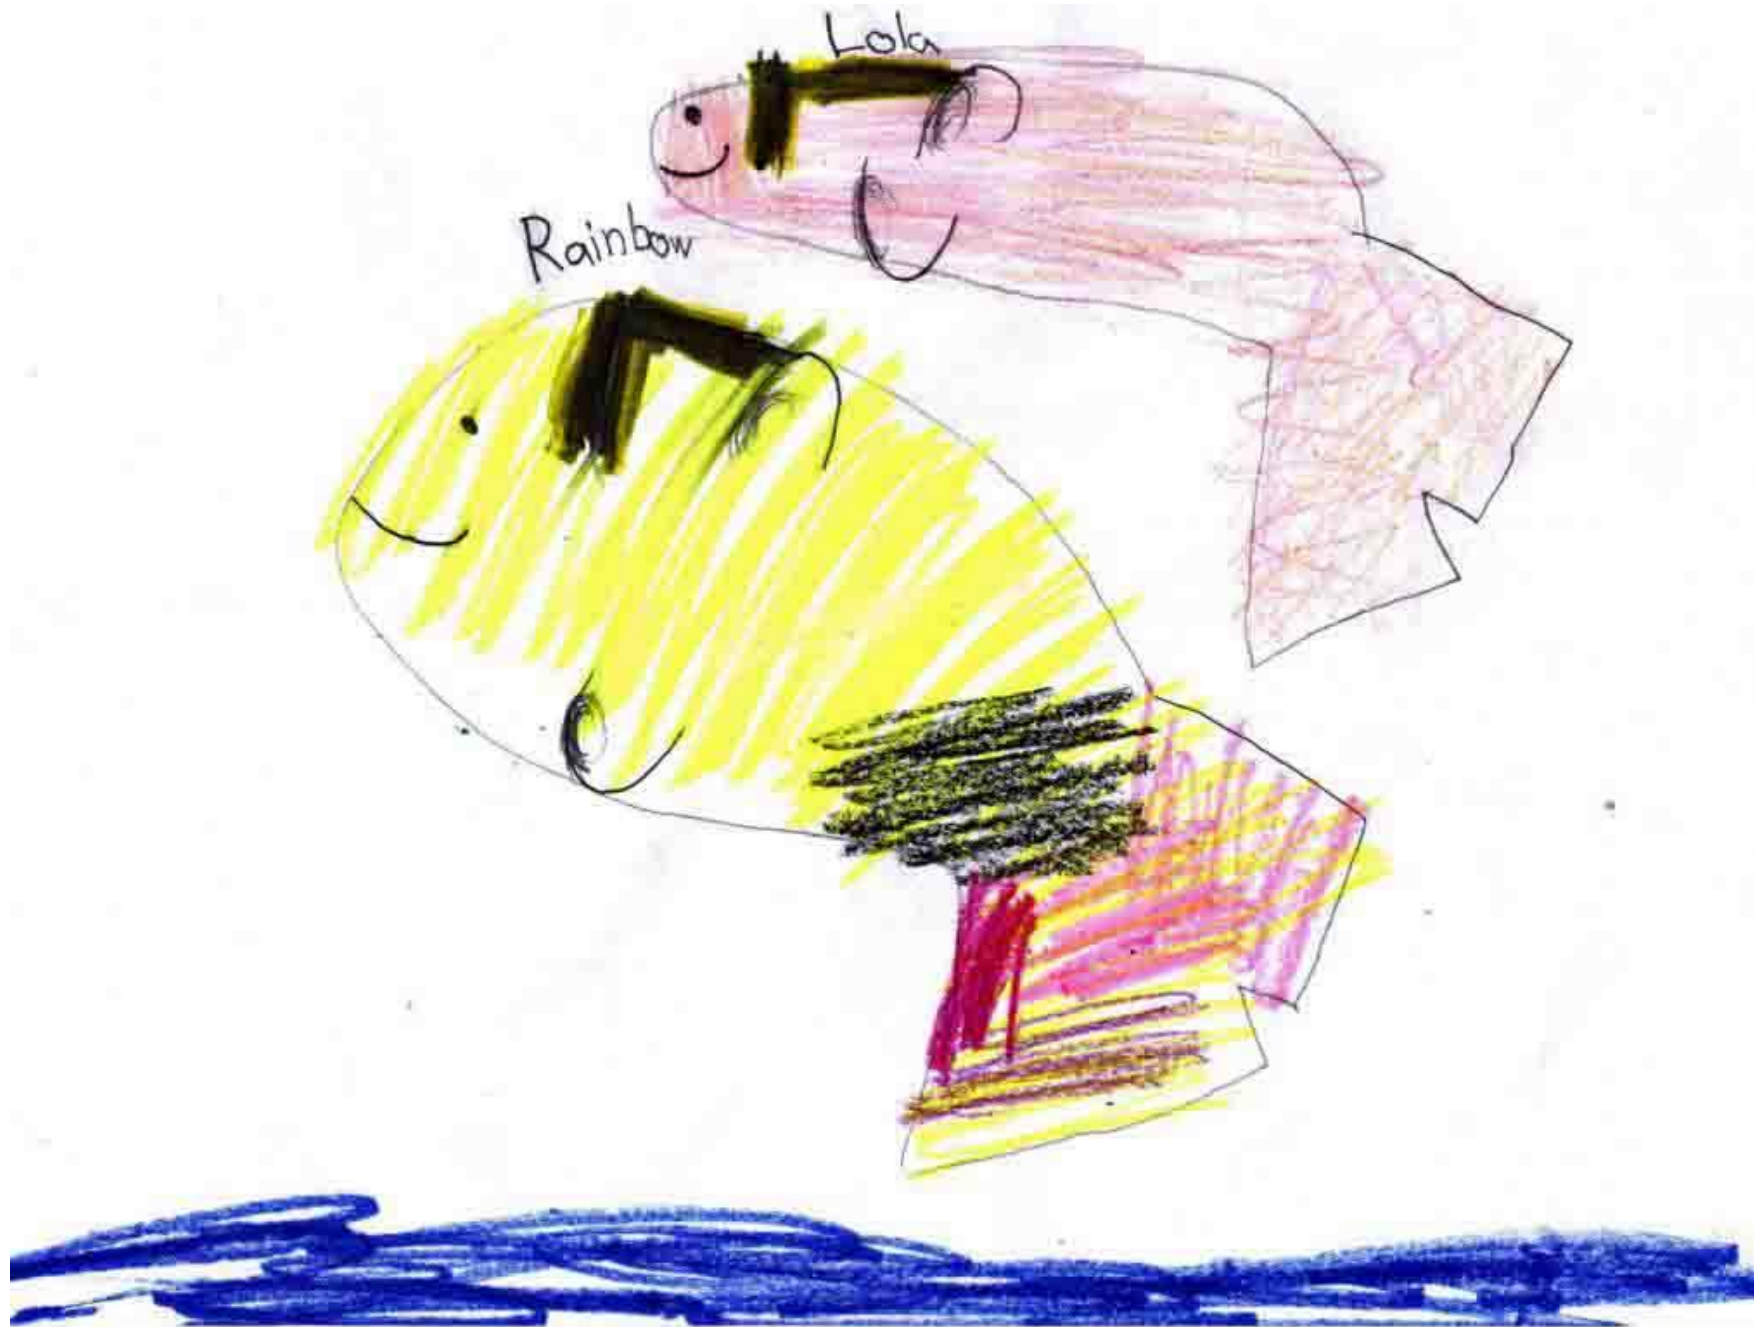

I saw something in the sky. It was very colorful.

I met a rainbow trout. Her name is Rainbow.
She got stuck in a net and got away. So did I.
She is so much fun.
