

Shilo

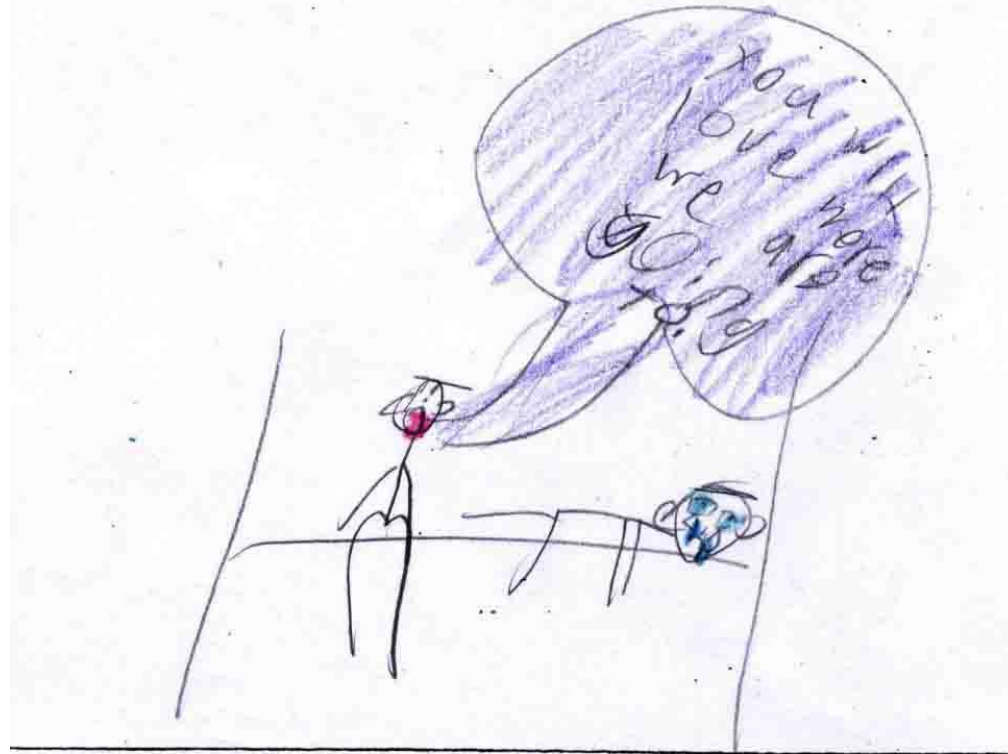

By Kylee

My name is Carsen. We moved yesterday. This is how it happened. We lived at a farm with my dog Shilo.

I was helping my dad milk the cows when he told me that we are going to move. I ran to my room and started crying.

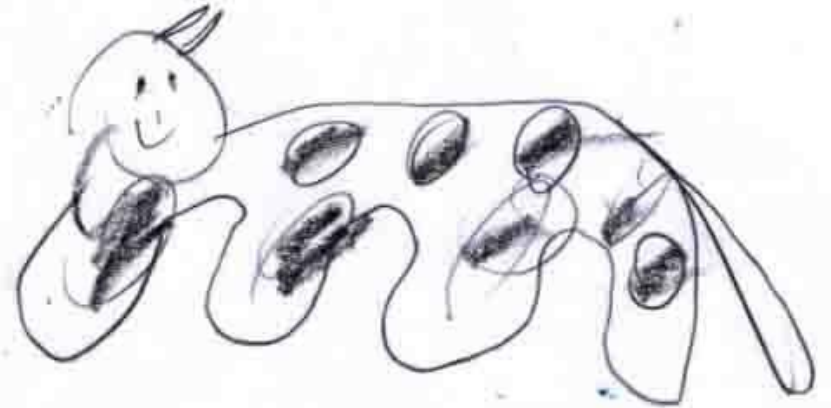

My dad came and said, “you will love where we are going to... but you will have to leave all of the cows here.” “But we can’t leave Shilo behind”, I said.

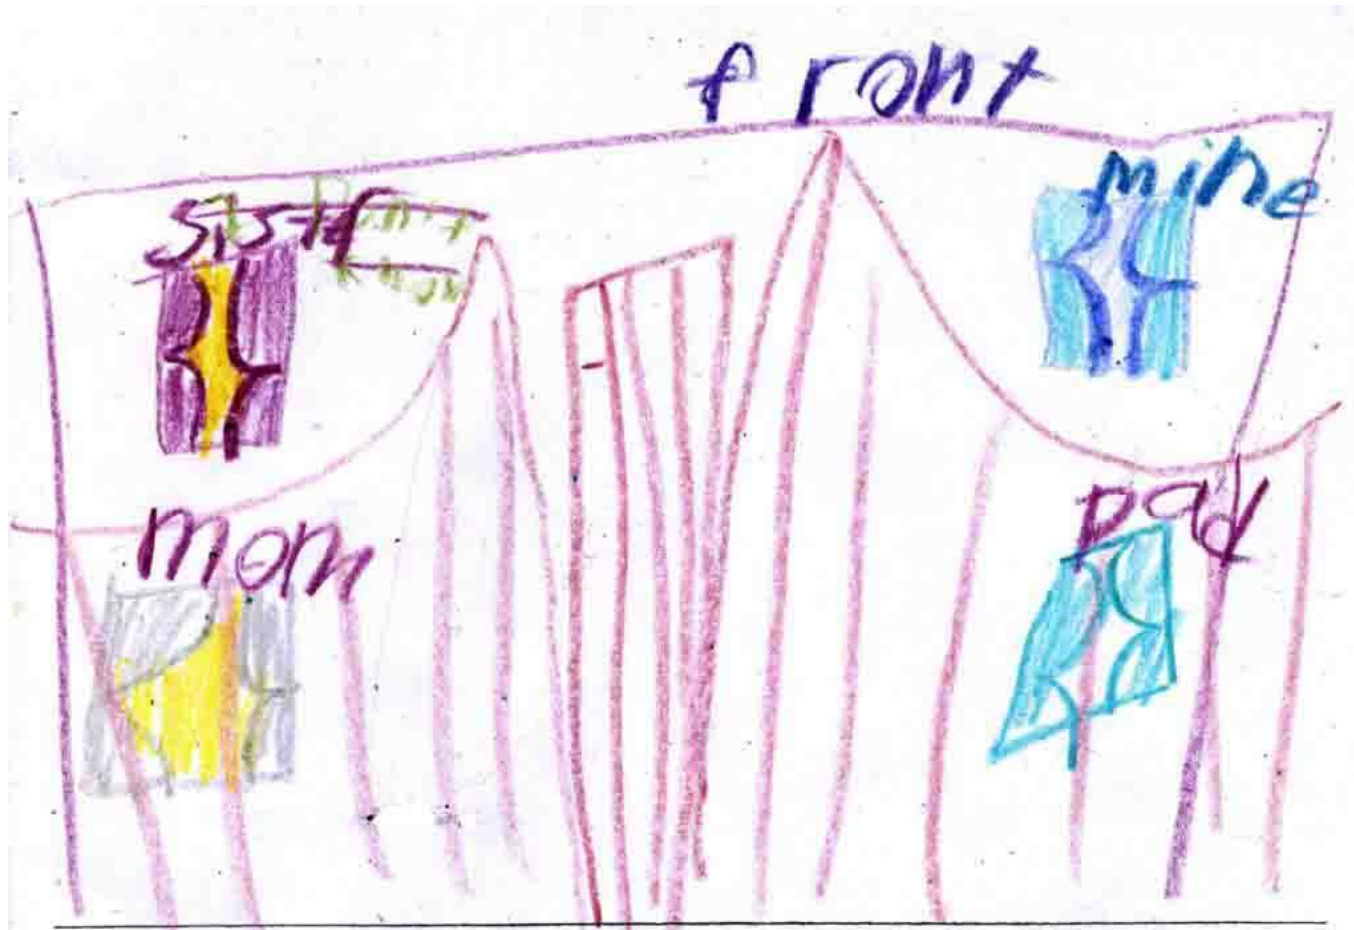

“Oh Carsen, you know that Shilo is not a cow”, said dad. “I know, can me and Shilo ride a horse?”, I asked nicely. “Sure”, my dad said.

We got everything packed and said bye to all the cows and went to our new house.

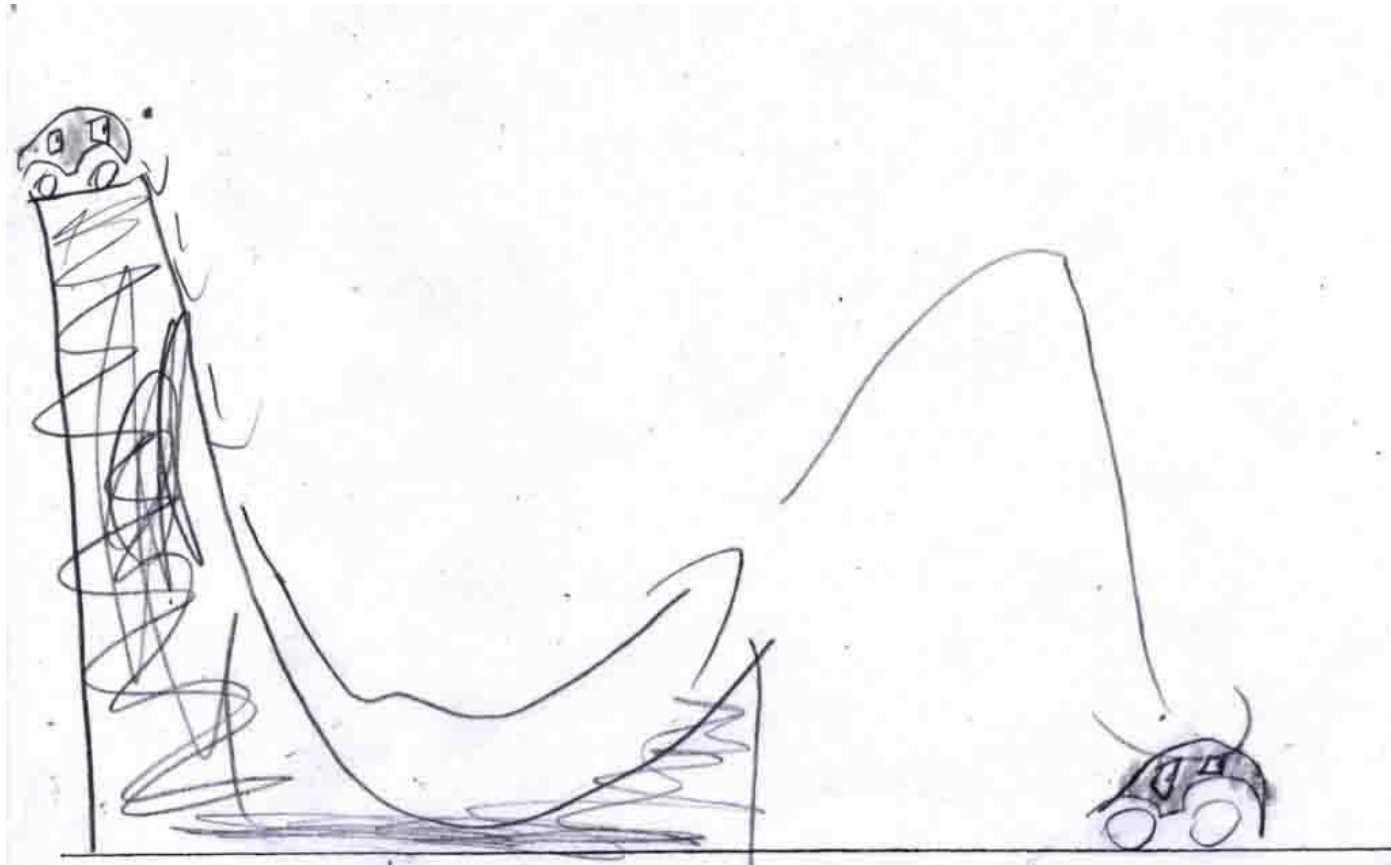

It was a place where Aquatica is. We live in Florida. There is a gate so nothing can get in, unless you have a special garage opener. That is where I am now unpacking.

Guess what? Whenever you move you get rid of you old toys and get new ones. I love my new toys.

I have a car launcher and my favorite of all is I got real puppies. I got ten of them!

Shilo is a mom!
