

The Bull Fight

By Jose

One day in Mexico Jose went to a bull fight. One of Jose's bulls went after the horse. He hurt the horse. Next... the bull fighters tried to take the bull in, but the bull went after the bullfighters! Then... the bull ran after the bull fighters and he got some of them!

Jose took off his red coat and he jumped into the arena. The bull ran after Jose's coat. When the bull got to the coat, Jose would get out of the way and run. He did it a lot of times. The people were screaming with excitement. In the end of the day, the bull went in because he was tired. Jose went home as a hero.
