

The Ghost and Me

By Tucker

One day I was walking. I heard a noise. It was in the trees! I kept on walking. After that it came again! So I really really walked fast! Then I heard it one last time! So I ran home! When I got there I looked under the rug and didn't see the key! I looked everywhere. I could not find it! I looked again, A GHOST had it! The ghost gave me the key and moaned, "you dropped your key back there." I said thank you and the ghost left. I went inside and went to bed!
