

The Ghost

By Hunter

One day I was helping my mom do the laundry. I heard a loud sound upstairs.

I went up the stairs. The noise sounded like rattling chains. It got louder and louder. The sound was coming from mom's room. When I got close to mom's room, I started shaking.

I opened the door and a ghost jumped out at me. I screamed.

I ran downstairs and the ghost followed me. Then my brother took the sheet off. He rattled some keys at me. He laughed at me and said, "I scared you so bad!"

I got really mad and told my mom.
