Rachel

One day my big sister Rachel was on a bike ride on Aspen Street. Me and the rest of the family were at home. Then, we got a call from Rachel. She said that there was something in the water and she didn't know what it was.

So she decided to take a quick look. She saw that it was a dog drowning. So she pulled the dog out of the water. Then the police and the elders came.

The police came and took the dog to the animal shelter. The dog was saved! That is why my sister is the greatest!
