Skyler

Once upon a time, far, far, away, in a land of clear sparkling waterfalls, green silver trees, and rainbows painting the skies, there was a place called Mystery Kingdom. There lived a world of fairies, thousands and thousands of fairies. Every single one of those fairies had their own special talent.

But, there was one fairy named Skyler who just couldn't figure out what her talent was! Skyler tried to be like the other fairies.

Magenta, Skyler's friend, was a water fairy. Skyler tried to control the water like Magenta could, but the water just sat there almost as if it was pouting!

Skyler's other friend, Lanie, was a sparkle fairy. Lanie could put sparkles on anything! A dress, a flower, shoes, just about everything. Lanie just spread out her fingers and flicked them. Sparkles, just magically came out from her fingers!

But when Skyler tried to spread sparkles, nothing came out of her fingers. "Oh, it's hopeless!" said Skyler. "I'll never find my talent," Skyler said hopelessly. "Don't worry Skyler, you'll find your talent some day," said Lanie. Then, Lanie flew off to her house.

"I hope so," Skyler said to herself. Then, Skyler flew off to her house and shortly fell asleep.

In the morning, Skyler woke up and ate breakfast. Skyler decided to go to the kingdom's queen, Queen Karissa. Skyler dressed very nicely and flew off to the queen.

When she arrived, the queen was there and said, "Why, hello Skyler, what can I do for you?" "Um, how can... I...", mumbled Skyler. "Yes?" the queen said. "How can I find out what my talent is?" Skyler asked.

"Well there is a place far, far away from here where I know an old lady who can help you.", the queen said.

“Where is she?” Skyler asked. The queen said, “She lives somewhere on a mountain called ‘Majestic Mountain’. You will need a month’s worth of food. You will also need a survival guide... and most of all bravery.”

“When should I go? How do you get there?” said Skyler. “You should leave tomorrow,” the queen said.

“Tomorrow?!” said Skyler. “Yes, tomorrow you will leave here... You will get there by flying a blimp toward the morning sun,” said the queen, “Good luck, Skyler”

Skyler flew off to her house and fell asleep. In the morning, Skyler was all set for her journey. “Goodbye!” everyone shouted.

Skyler was off on her journey. It had been 3 days since Skyler had left Mystery kingdom. “I miss it already,” Skyler said. All of a sudden the blimp jerked forward and started falling toward the ground. “Aaaah!” Skyler screamed.

Skyler (she had wings, don't forget) jumped out from the blimp and flew over and landed on a tree branch. The blimp floated down into a murky brown pond. "So much for my transportation!" said Skyler.

"Wanna ride with me?" a voice said. "Huh," said Skyler. "Over here," the voice said. Skyler looked to her left and saw a fairy like her dressed in purple. She had blue sparkling eyes that almost seemed to hypnotize Skyler! The fairy also had long black hair. The fairy said, "Hi, I'm Rachel". "Oh, I'm Skyler," she said.

"I saw your blimp crashed, wanna ride with me," said Rachel. "Oh, sure, Thanks."

"Where are you headed to?" asked Rachel. "Majestic Mountain," said Skyler. "Ok, we better get going, there's a storm coming," said Rachel.

"Ok, let's go!" they said. So Rachel and Skyler set off for Majestic Mountain.

Rachel and Skyler were eating in Rachel's blimp. "It's so cozy in here," said Skyler. "Thanks" said Rachel. Then Rachel and Skyler heard the storm clear and saw the sun coming out with the birds chirping. "Are we here?" Skyler asked.

"I think so," Rachel said. A little bit away Rachel and Skyler saw a sign that said 'Majestic Mountain'. "We are here!" Skyler said.

When Rachel and Skyler landed Skyler said, "Well goodbye, thanks for the ride," said Skyler. "Bye!" said Rachel.

Skyler climbed to Majestic Mountain and then reached it! "I did it" said Skyler. Skyler looked at all the houses to try and find the old lady that could help Skyler find her talent.

"Young fairy, do you need my help?" said a voice. Skyler turned around and saw an old lady. "Yes, I do need your help. Queen Karissa sent me here from Cloud Kingdom so I could find my talent," said Skyler

“Oh yes, I know Karissa. Come to my house,” said the old lady. Skyler went into the old lady’s house. “So you wanna find your talent? Well, tell me about your long journey here,” the old lady said.

Skyler told the old lady about everything on her journey. “Don’t you realize you already have a talent,” the old lady said. “I do?” Skyler said.

The old lady said, “Yes! Your talent is bravery. I’ve never heard a story with a fairy that has such bravery. “My talent is... BRAVERY!” The old lady said. “Yes. You do not have to be like other fairies who can control water or spread sparkles” the old lady said.

“Wow, thanks Skyler said. “Goodbye” the old lady said. “Bye” Skyler said. Then Skyler flew back to Mystery Kingdom so she could tell everyone her talent.

The End
