The very Lonely Alligator

by Molly

One night there was a very lonely alligator. He had no friends.

He swam in the swamp and then he saw something. He said, "What is there?"

 It was sun. Alligator said, "Sun why are you sad?" The sun said, "I am sad because I do not have any friends."

 The alligator said, "I am cold. can you warm me up?" "Yes," said the sun.
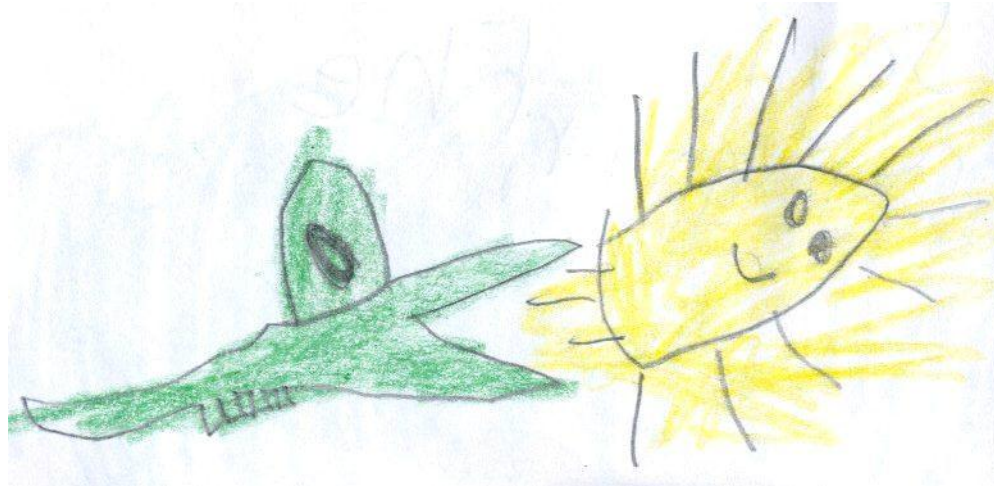

"I will be your friend!" said alligator. "Let's go play!" sun said. The alligator said, "Let's go to the swings!"

"I am hungry," said alligator. "Let's go get a snack," said sun.

"Let's dive in!" said alligator.
SPLASH! "Yum," said the alligator.

The sun helped alligator stay warm and they were best friends.
