One day a little horse named Pony was walking in the meadow when she met another horse name Sparkles. Pony and Sparkle ran, laughed, sang, and played. Then, they ate dinner.

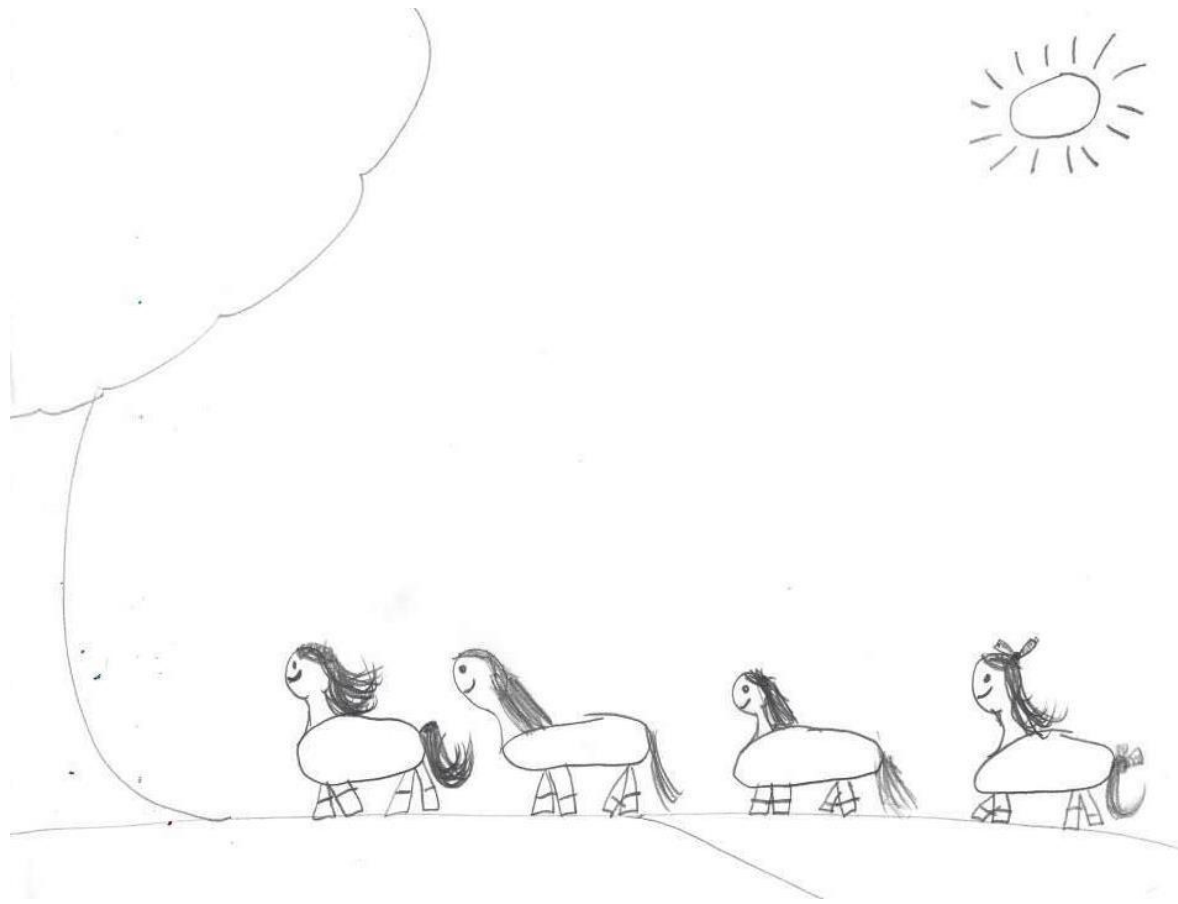

Then next day they were running and Pony fell. Crash!! Pony broke her leg. Sparkles went looking for a doctor. By the end of the day, there was no sign of any doctor. Sparkles looked through dinner and through the night, still no sign of any doctor.

On the next day Sparkles found a doctor, and they went to Pony. The doctor gave pony a cast.

Two weeks later Pony's leg healed. They ran, laughed, and told stories. When they were about to eat dinner, they found some more friends.
