

Sophia and mystery!
by madison

Sophia and Mystery

By Madison

Once Sophia had two cats, a brown cat and an orange cat. The brown cat's name was Chocolate and the orange cat's name was Apple. Sophia was in bed when she had heard a sound. She thought it was her imagination. So she just went back to bed. When she woke up there was tape all over the house. She ran to tell mom and mom said, "I know when I woke up, I was amazed to see the tape everywhere in the house. Maybe it was the dog."

Sophia said, "But the dog can't reach that far."

"But the cats can't jump that far either," said mom.

"But who else in the house could do that?" Sophia asked.

"Maybe it was dad or brother or sister, who knows," said mom "It's past your bed time. You should get to bed."

When Sophia was in bed again, she heard the sound again. But she didn't stay in bed. She got out of bed and saw the cats going around the house with tape. She told mom and dad and they hid the tape.