Cows and Pigs

By Aidan F

The cows and pigs have been at war since the year 1337. The sheep have recently allied with the cows, sharing half of Moo York. You are on the cow's side. Your name is Michal Cow, a sheep spy pretending to be on the pig's side. You have to make a fake ID, John McSheepston. The pigs ate your family... Supposedly. So you have a reason to hate the pigs. Now go, Michal Cow, and save Moo York!

“Okay, so here's the plan,” said Joshua Moomoo.

“Okay then, so I have to make a fake ID, infiltrate the pigs' base and blow up their main power source, causing them to have to surrender?” You ask.

“Exactly!” Joshua said.

“So, when do I start?” You ask.

“Now,” Joshua answered.

You finally got to the base, it’s on a secret island near Oinkzil (Oinkzil is Brazil but for pigs. It’s pretty much the same) and began your mission. You first got the job. Next, you needed to find their main power source. You found it quickly. It was in the center of the island and a volcano!

You quickly go to it and realize you forgot to get explosives! You improvise and have to find a weak point and ram into it. You go straight to a part in the middle and find out the volcano itself is a weapon! You find the power source and ram into it, knocking yourself unconscious.

Joshua Moomoo quickly comes with a helicopter and saves you from the explosion. You wake up the next day and you hear you’ve saved Moo York. Michal Cow, you saved a city, but it isn’t over yet.

The pigs have found out about you and now you need to avoid them trying to capture you.

You better hurry, they've already infiltrated the cow's hidden base. You grab a screwdriver and a flashlight and unscrew the vent's grate. You climb in and make sure no pigs see you. You escape the base but the city is overrun by pigs!

You see an empty box and go in it. You sneak past a few of the pigs without being seen but they noticed that they've all seen a cardboard box. But it disappears soon after they look away. They find you so you hurry and climb to the top of a building. You jump across the roof tops and escape the city but the pigs still chase you.

You hurry to Moo Jersey (A nearby city) and find your cousin. You tell him that the pigs are coming for you and you need a place to stay.

"So can I, Gary?" you ask.

"Fine," Gary said.

"Thanks, also, if you see any pigs, tell me and don't open the door," you say.

You go to a room with nothing but a bed. You put your stuff in a closet next to your room and sit down on the bed. You look around and find a little sharp piece of wood. You grab it and put it in your wool. You walk towards the door and see sheep. They dyed themselves pink to try blending in with the pigs. Then you notice there are pigs too!

You run out the back door and leave to MooMoo City and make a sandwich for no reason. You leave the sandwich for your sheep friends and see a chicken eating pizza. You pass a place called Bobby Boobooface's pizza or something like that and see a bear with a microphone. You just walk away and see a sheep with a name tag saying "A Pig" and then go to a Dirt Factory in Dirtville and see a bunch of dirt everywhere.

You decide to disguise yourself as a bucket of dirt by dyeing your wool brown then jumping into a barrel. The pigs follow you in and look in every container and don't see you. The pigs leave and you quickly get out of the barrel so you can leave too.

You dye your wool white again and run to a restaurant called 'Durpeon's Grill'. You walk in and see the pigs are already there! You run away and decide it's time to fight back.

You go and return to Moo York and enter the Sheep Armory. You walk in and see an attack helicopter. You climb in and decide to attack the pigs. You start shooting at the pigs and they flee, you won! You fly away and notice a small shack down in a forest nearby, so you check it out. You open the door and see some sheep, staring at you. You, being a kind sheep left them alone and waited out by the helicopter. They go outside and talk to you.

"Why are you here? I thought all the other sheep were captured..." one said.

"Well, we weren't all captured. Only those of us who were brave enough to return to Moo York as it was controlled by the pigs," You said.

You let them take the helicopter to spread the news of Moo York being freed. You return to Moo York soon after and find everyone is back. You return home and see your friends planned a huge party for you freeing Moo York.

The End.
