How Armadillo Lizard Shoots Blood Out
Of His Eyes

By AJ

A long time ago when days were new Armadillo Lizard couldn't shoot blood from his eyes. But this is a story how they can do it now.

One time Armadillo Lizard was running by the pond and he wanted to see his friend Komodo Dragon. On his way there, he couldn't slow down. So he bumped Basilisk Lizard and Armadillo Lizard's eye turned pink.

“Hey,” said Basilisk Lizard

“Sorry,” said Armadillo. “Lizard, are you okay?”

“Yes,” said Basilisk Lizard.

Where is

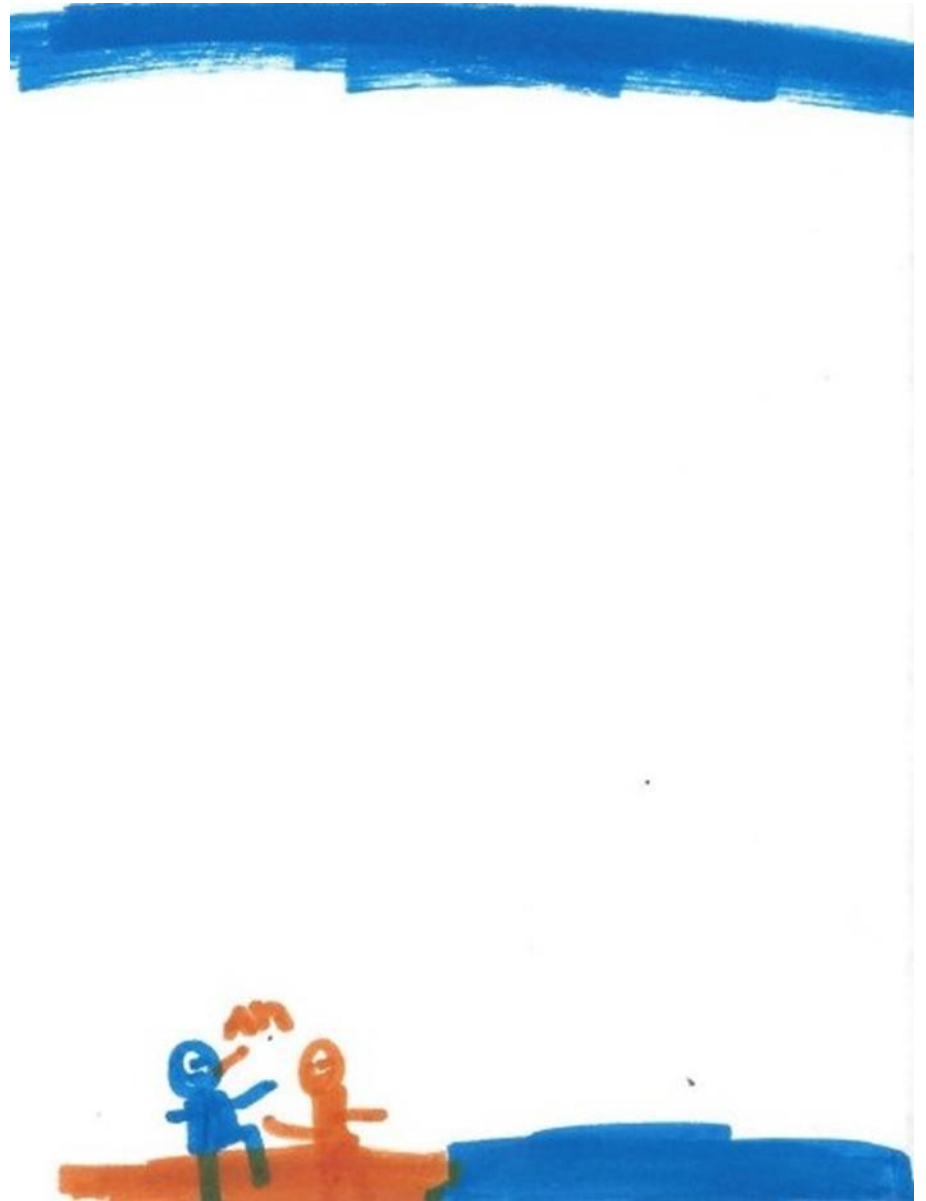

“I was in hurry because I wanted to talk to Komodo Dragon.

“Why do you want to find Komodo Dragon?” asked Basilisk Lizard.

“I want to ask him how he got so big,” said Armadillo Lizard.

“He’s in the forest,” said Basilisk Lizard.

“Thank you,” said Armadillo Lizard.

So Armadillo Lizard runs to the forest and he bumps Komodo Dragon's body. Then his eye turns red.

"Hey," says Komodo Dragon

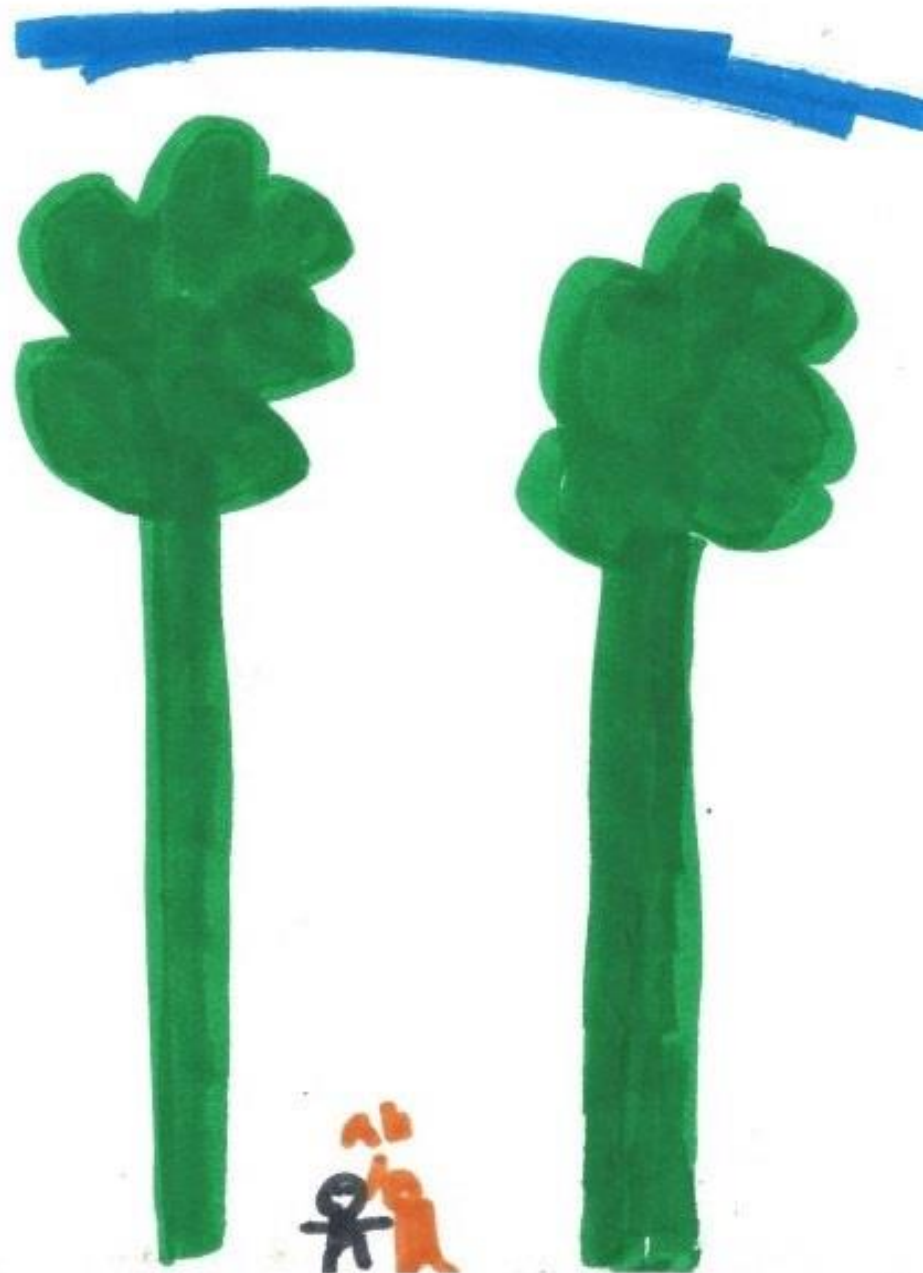

"Sorry," says Armadillo Lizard, "Are you okay?"

"Yes I am alright," said Komodo Dragon.

"Komodo Dragon how did you get so big?"

Komodo replied, "I eat a lot of meat from large animals."

"I'm too small to eat large animals" sighed Armadillo Lizard. He thought I can't get big, maybe I can grow cool frills like frilled lizard.

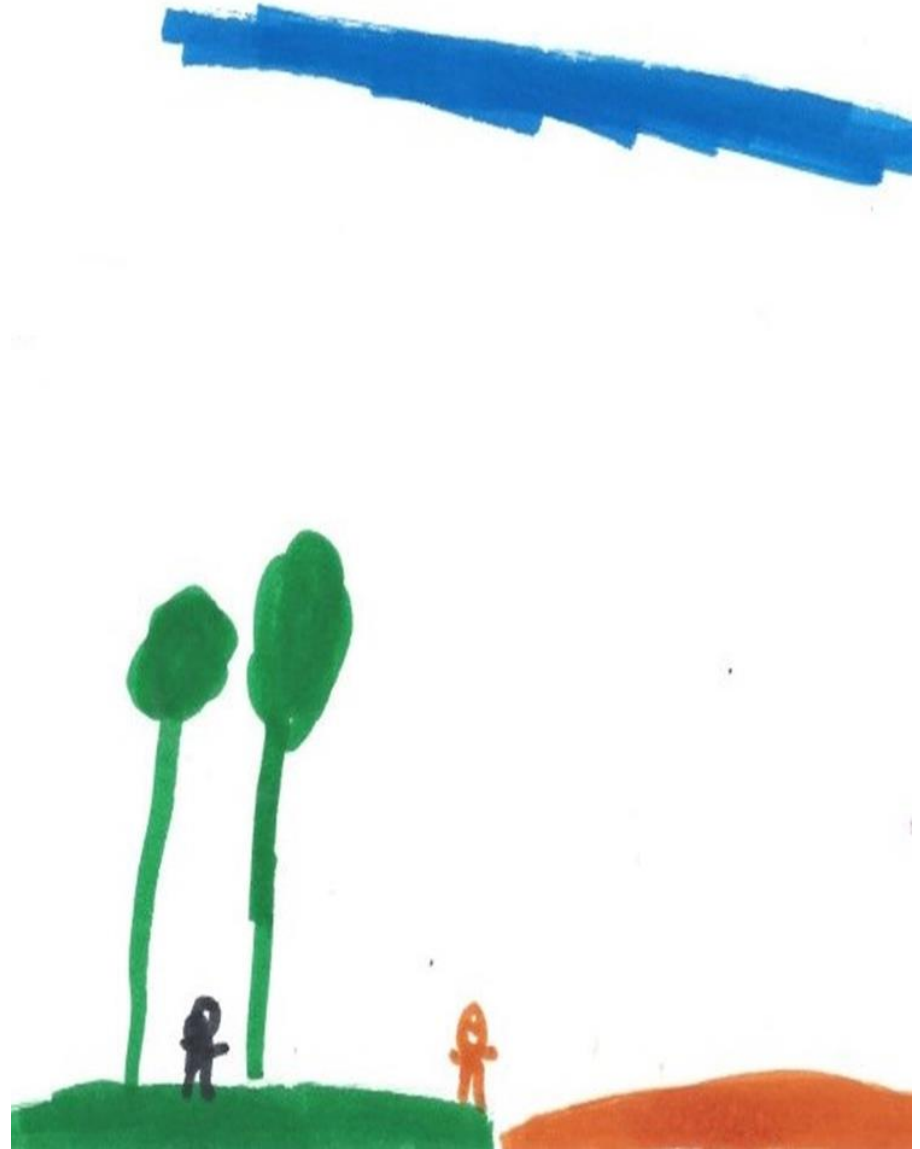

“Where is Frilled Lizard?” asked Armadillo Lizard.

“Why do you want to find Frilled Lizard?” asked Komodo Dragon

“I want to talk to him about his awesome spikes,” said Armadillo Lizard.

“He’s in the desert,” said Komodo Dragon.

“Thank you,” said Armadillo Lizard as he ran to the desert.

So Armadillo Lizard ran to the desert and runs into one of Frilled Lizard's spikes. Armadillo Lizard's eye started bleeding.

Frilled Lizard asked, "Are you okay?" Armadillo Lizard.

Armadillo covered his eye and started crying, "OW, OW, OW!"

"I didn't mean to poke your eye, you are the one who ran into me," said Armadillo Lizard.

"I just got excited, I wanted to see how you grew those awesome frills," cried Armadillo Lizard.

"Oh these frills. I got them by falling in a spiny bush. When I came out, I had these frills. I almost died, but I barely survived."

“All I Wanted is to be cool like you guys, now I can’t even be cool like you,” cried Armadillo Lizard.

“Hey that’s pretty cool how you shoot blood out of your eyes.”

“I guess so,” sighed Armadillo Lizard.

Over time he learned to use the blood to scare away predators so they wouldn’t eat him.

.....And that is how Armadillo Lizard shoots blood out of his eye’s.

The End!!!!
