

Finding my Crystal

Finding My Crystal

By: Payton L

"Ahhh... I'm finally here!" I said. I was about to enter the cave to get my crystal so I could make my lightsaber.

"Go in you must Pegasus, (I am Pegasus, a human) find a crystal you may." said Jedi Master Yoda.

"Ok Master Yoda... I am going in." I replied with hesitation.

"Remember, quick you must be, or freeze over the door will again for many days." He said.

"I will Master Yoda!!" I yelled as I ran off into the cave.

The cave was barely light enough to see further into it. I had been walking for at least ten minutes. The floor was icy and the walls were cold like snow was covering them.

I ran my hand through my long, curly, black hair, "Uhg... when is my crystal going to show up?!"

All of a sudden I heard a noise "Bam, Bam, Bam!!"

I started running as fast as I could but suddenly I heard a crack and I fell through the floor. I landed in a cave that was sparkling with tons and tons of crystals. I wiped off my Broncos number 18 jersey. I looked around and saw that there was one crystal that was glowing above all other crystals. I had to scale a medium sized wall that looked icy to grab it though.

"Oh no, I don't have time to scale a wall because this could take forever. The door will ice over again soon and I'll be stuck in here forever. But I guess if I even want to have a chance of getting out of here I better start climbing." I said to myself.

I started scaling the wall. After, about a half an hour of climbing the wall I reached the top and grabbed the crystal. The crystal was a very pastel pink, and a pastel blue. I put the crystal in my jeans pocket and started sliding down the wall. After, I got all the way down I realized I didn't know which way to go because there were five different tunnels. I spent ten minutes trying to decide which tunnel to go down. Finally, my senses told me to go down the middle path. I started walking down the path and I slipped.

I gasped "Please don't crack, please don't break." I whispered.

I slowly got up and started walking a little bit slower.

"Whew... that was close!"

After a little while more of walking, I saw a small sliver of light! I started running towards it! As I got closer, it looked like the door and it was about to finish icing over! I started sprinting as fast as I could!

"Oh no! It's going to ice over!"

I used all my strength and ran to the door! I slid under the door like a baseball player sliding into home base just as the door froze over! "Done it you have!" said Master Yoda

"Build your light saber you must do now."

"I will and can't wait to build the perfect lightsaber for me" I said as Master Yoda and I were walking out of the cave.

The End.
