THE GATHERING

by Kailen

It was the gathering and I was in the cave. It was spooky and cold. I split up with the group so I could get out faster with my crystal. I was walking down a hallway when suddenly the floor beneath me vanished. There was ice blocking the path. I then saw Genor and I yelled at him to help me. Then I saw a glowing light. I said to Genor

“Look over there, there is a glowing light over there.”

Genor said “I can’t see it must be your crystal, remember Yoda said only you can see your crystal.”

It was across the freezing water then I had to climb up a mountain. It looked slippery and wet. I took a step on the iceberg floating in ice cold water and slipped. I ran back to shore. The water is FREEZING!!! I waited and waited until I had the guts to do it. I stepped on the iceberg and I got on it ok then I took another step and another and finally I got the end of that. Then I had a long time for the climb. Meanwhile outside Genor, and Jadisle were waiting for me and Devin. I slipped on the rock I almost fell. I had one hand on the rock and it was slipping, at one point I only had my finger tips on it. One time I slipped and fell on the ledge 5 feet below me. I was scared to death!!! I kept on climbing until I got to a point where the cliff was just slick rock. I had to jump down a level so I could continue to climb up. I finally I made it to the top. I ripped the crystal down from where it was hanging. It would take too long to climb down so I looked around and I saw a pathway so I sprinted down it and ran into Devin. We both fell down.

We both got up and said sorry. I asked "Did you find your crystal yet."

Devin said "No."

"The door has almost frozen over. We better go fast!"

We ran off! I ran towards the exit because I found my crystal already. I found the exit and slid through it. The suddenly it closed.

"DEVIN!!! I yelled. "I have to go in to help Devin"

As I went back in I heard something, I thought it was a monster, then it was running towards me and I started to run away then I realized it was Devin.

"Whoa!" I said "I thought you were a monster."

“Gee thanks Kailor.”

“Well sorry, I didn’t mean to make it offensive. So did you find your crystal yet?”

“No” as tears rolled down his face.

“I’ll help you.”

“Over here Kailor. I found something. We have to cross a ravine and at the bottom there were spikes on fire. Also There was a tightrope to the other side.”

We decided to walk across it and we both fell down on a spike.

“OWWWW!!!!!!!!!!!!” Kailor and Devin said in pain. We were bleeding profusely.

Meanwhile outside Jadizle said “where are these persons? I’m going in.”

As he went in he ran and saw us at the bottom of the ravine.

“What the heck! How did you get down there?”

“We were walking across the tightrope and we fell” I said

“I’m coming to get you guys.”

Sometime later he came down and Jadizle said "Whoa why is it so bloody?"

"We hit the spikes" we both said.

"I'm coming to get you people."

A hour later Jadizle helped us out of the ravine and he was carrying us both,

"Man you guys are heavy"

"Well I only weigh 81 pounds" I said and Devin said "I only weigh 94"

"Well together you weigh 165."

"Well that is heavy" I said

"Yes, yes it is"

"I think I can walk. OWW it hurts"

We were almost out when suddenly Devin wasn't breathing or talking. I said

"DEVIN YOU HEAR ME??!!"

Nothing but silence!...

"I think he's dead" Jadizle said.

“No he’s not, he just passed out. I know all about it because my mom is a trainer”

“Well if he’s passed out what do we do then smarty pants?”

“I’m not a smarty pants. Well if he has a heat stroke we pour cold water but I don’t think that’s the case. I think he doesn’t have enough blood. We have to go to the hospital and FAST!” (Then again I’m not a smarty pants)

As we broke through the door of ice Yoda said “Holy guacamole what happened?”

“He lost a lot of blood we need to get him to the hospital” I said

When we got there we told the nurses he needs blood because he lost a lot. After we got him into the hospital bed and one of the nurses said “I’m sorry to say that Devin heartbeat is not beating anymore.” We all looked at each other and said nothing. After ten seconds Devin popped up “What did I miss?”

“DEVIN” we all said “YOUR ALIVE”

We all went back to the cave when Devin’s health was replenish.

Yoda said "After that near death experience, you all learned something, Devin you learned persistence in the beginning Genor you learned courage, Jadizle you learned helping, and Kailor you learned all of them. You all may get your lightsabers."

After I got my lightsaber I had fun opening and closing it.
