

Fairy World

by : Kayla illustrated : Kayla

Fairy World

By Kayla

Chapter 1

Wild Walk

One day, Emily and Ashly were walking their dog Simba. He escaped his collar and ran into a big grass spot with a dirt climbing hill, hangout place, and secret trail. Ashly and Emily had to chase after Simba. Ashly's long blond hair and purple dress blew in the gusty wind. Emily tried to keep up as her long green dress slowed her down. When they got tired and walked, they saw the grassy field, climbing spot, and hangout spot.

They loved these spots, but they did not know about the secret trail. Instead of catching Simba, he ran onto the secret trail. Emily and Ashly ran after him again. Once Simba got farther away from them, he got scared and sat down. Finally, they caught up to him. They looked around and saw a tree they could sit in. While Ashly was getting in the tree, she grabbed a branch and a secret door opened.

Chapter 2

Going Through

When they first walked in the secret door, they shrunk and were transported to another place. Then they saw a dirt path. At the end of it was a leaf entrance. When they walked through it, they saw a little rock path. At the end of it was a river. The river was called Sparkle River. Emily swam through it. But Simba was still a baby, so Ashly had to carry him through a shallow part of the river which took a while. Since Emily swam through it, she got there with time to look around the forest. When they all were on the other side, they heard a high voice.

It said, "You did a good job crossing."

They looked around but didn't see anything. They kept on walking along a trail. An hour later they begin to see a building. It turned out to be a restaurant called Wing Burger. They went in and heard something in the kitchen. They were too scared to look, but they did find a table with food on it. They sat down and ate. After eating for a while, they heard talking. But one person who was talking didn't sound normal. They got so scared that they ran away while screaming.

The door had a bell on it. So when they left, it went ding dong. A fairy named Cylestia and her dog Jibels came out of the kitchen door. They looked outside, but didn't see anything. So they went back inside.

Chapter 3

Wing Village

They ran a half a mile away from Wing Burger. Then they saw another trail. It lead to Wing Village. They saw a lot of colorful houses. When they walked into the village, windows and doors started magically closing. Simba got scared of the loud noise and whined. Ashly picked him up and they kept walking. At the end of the trail there was a big black house.

A man with wings came out and said, "This town is private property. There is even a sign that says NO TRESPASSING."

The man with wings handcuffed Emily and Ashly and brought them to the town prison. Simba had to go to the main police's room. Emily and Ashly had to escape!

After a while the main police fell asleep. Simba scooted a file box to the door and jumped up. Luckily it was one that you pull down. When Simba got out of the room, he found the keys and brought them to the girls. They unlocked the prison door.

But Ashly and Emily still kept it closed. Simba went to get an extra police suit and brought it to Ashly. Ashly put it on over her clothes. She acted like she had handcuffed Emily and walked past the front office police.

She said, "I heard there was a robbery in the town bank. You better go check it out. I'll stay here and watch the front office."

When the police left, Ashly, Emily and Simba ran out. Ashly took off the suit. They hurried and ran. Luckily they got out of the town in time before anyone knew they were gone.

Chapter 4

The Noise

They kept on walking until they saw a lot of trees. They walked a little closer and saw it was a forest. They walked into the forest and heard something above them. They kept walking and heard something in a tree hole. They saw a tree fall. Behind it was a dragon, fairy, and unicorn forest.

They were walking when they ran in to vines. They tried to move them, but they would not budge. Simba had to chew through them.

When they finally made it through the vines, there was a sparkly waterfall with a unicorn by it. At first the unicorn was scared but it let them ride it. They got a little farther away when a storm started. The unicorn got scared and flew away.

Emily, Ashly, and Simba got a little scared. But they had to get through the storm. So they kept on walking. Finally, the storm ended.

They saw a dragon and started gently petting it. They got another ride. But then they heard the same two little voices. Cylestia and Jibbles were just getting some berries to make a milk shake. When Emily and Ashly saw them, it all made sense.

Cylestia asked, "Who are you?"

They replied, "We are Emily and Ashly. Who are you?"

"My name is Cylestia and this is Jibbles."

Cylestia had to go home. So Emily and Ashly kept walking until they made it to the edge of the forest. They slept in a tree.

Chapter 5

The Mysterious Trail

In the morning they were ready to see what the next challenge was. But it wasn't so good. They saw diamonds in the water, got excited, and ran to them. There was a little river that looked calm. But it had really big currents. Simba put one paw in the water and almost got washed away. Luckily, Ashly grabbed him.

Ashly and Emily tried to grab the diamonds. But they would not come up. Simba tried to help but still the diamonds would not move. Ashly even tried to get a long skinny rock. But the diamonds broke the rock. After trying a lot, it was night.

The next morning, they knew they weren't ready for the next thing. Emily was walking on a diamond and magically it threw her off. She disappeared in the fog.

To be continued...