Lava Lizard's Hard Day

By Lucas

It is a hot winter day at lava lizard's volcano and right now Lava Lizard is not in his volcano. He is actually at Lava Lake on a fishing trip. So far he has caught three Lava Fish which are now laying in Lava Lizard's lava bucket so they don't go bad. He hadn't caught one in a while and was about to decide to go home when he caught a glimpse of a Lava Fish tail in the lava. The Lava Fish swam around very fast, so Lava Lizard tried a net. But that just melted in the lava.

Then a bird said sarcastically, "Wow you're intelligent."

Lava Lizard shot the bird a withering look and shouted, "Shut up and go away."

Next he tried to shoot it with lava like he does with the human soldiers that bother him. But that worked as well as it would if you shot a normal fish with water.

"WOW! You are so good at this," squawked the very annoying bird.

Then he tried to hit it with his paw like he does with the other Lava Fish. But the Lava Fish was too fast. He really wanted to catch that Lava Fish, so he jumped and tried to tackle it. But he only came out soaked in lava.

“Ha hah ha ha,” laughed the annoying bird which was now laying on its back rolling with laughter.

Lava Lizard shot at the bird with lava. “I said go away!”

“Hey you singed some of my feathers,” yelled the annoying bird. Then Lava Lizard swiped at Lava Fish with both paws and caught it but Lava Fish had other plans. Lava Fish slipped out of Lava Lizards paws, flew in the air, and smacked Lava Lizard in the face with his tail

“You are not going to eat me if I can help it,” and fell back into Lava Lake.

Then the bird said “that must be humiliating. Lava Lizard really wanted that Lava Fish he was so desperate he put Lava Fish food in his mouth opened it and waited. He had waited about fifteen minutes when Lava Fish jumped out of the water. Lava Lizard was expecting Lava Fish to smack him again but instead Lava Fish landed in Lava Lizards mouth. Lava Lizard quickly put Lava Fish in his lava bucket.

“Oh crud you got me,” sighed Lava Fish. Then Lava Lizard rushed home and put the fish in his Lava fridge. That night when he opened his fridge Lava Lizard found all the Lava Fish crying.

“Please don’t eat us!”

He answered saying, “how will I survive? If I don’t eat you I’ll starve.”

“We’ll all help you catch some Lava Crab,” they said. Well Lava Crab is tasty he thought to himself.

“Deal,” he said.

After that he and the Lava Fish became good friends and enjoyed eating Lava Crab together, yep I guess Lava Fish are carnivores.

And they all lived happily ever after.
